Internal Affairs Annual Analysis Report CALEA 26.2.1

All citizen concerns and inquiries are fully investigated by the Lewiston Police Department in order to identify training issues, and conduct quality control checks on both police employees and department operational procedures; thus advancing the professional performance and accountability of the agency within the community which we serve. It is understood that events and incidents will occur in this profession which can cause questions of concern to be raised. Each instance which is reported will be investigated and dealt with in a professional and fair manner with documentation.

The process for filing of a personnel complaint most generally begins by contacting the on-duty Shift Commander. The Patrol Commander/supervisor will hear out the nature of the complaint being made, and will be able to provide forms which will document the receipt of a formal complaint being initiated. The person who is filing the complaint may be referred for follow-up contact with the commanding supervisor of the officer who is the subject of the complaint. Types of legitimate complaints would be concerning allegations of such which would include: 1) criminal conduct by agency personnel; 2) neglect of duty; 3) violation of Departmental rules, regulations, or procedure; 4) specified conduct which would reflect unfavorably upon the individual or agency; 5) instance of problem occasioned by what is deemed to be a faulty or defective policy or procedure. The person who is filing the complaint will be requested to cause it to be put into written form, and will also request that it be signed in accordance with any formal legal document. The supervisor taking the complaint will provide a copy of the complaint form serving as a receipt to verify that the complaint will be processed. Follow-up contact will be made within (5) days and the person filing the complaint will be informed of its on-going status and disposition when completed, in a timely manner.

A formal investigation can be initiated from a concern and/or complaint brought to report by a citizen, and an investigation can be initiated internally based upon knowledge obtained through information or observation with or without a formalized citizen report being made. Not all investigations of civilian complaints are handled in a formal manner. A minor complaint or situation may only require an informal investigation conducted by a supervisory officer as a routine part of employee performance control and the supervisor taking the complaint can resolve the issue to the complainant's satisfaction.

During the year of 2020, there were 127 individual Forced Response to Resistance Reports completed stemming from (92) instances of force response encounters involving 42 officers or 54% of the sworn compliment. Using an average of approximately 3 incidents per officer, 12 officers or 15% of the sworn compliment of officers were above the average, accounting for 72, or 57% of the response to resistance reports. Of the 92 reported incidents, 74% involved Caucasians, 22% involved Blacks, 1.5% involved Hispanics. (In some incidents Caucasians, Blacks and Hispanics may have been involved in the same incident which would cause overlapping percentages)

Three 3 of those aforementioned 12 officers were involved in 5 of the above listed complaints from the public. Supervisors have been notified so that they can take note for future analysis of any possible patterns of officers involved in repeat incidents to try and determine if appropriate actions are being utilized and whether more supervision or additional training is needed.
